JAPANESE SLAYER HAS A HEARING

Little Additional Evidence Adduced to Clear Up Mysterious Murder of Countryman.

Ogden, Dec. 14.-George Kawahata, a Japanese, charged with the murder of a fellow countryman, Oki Okano, was preliminary hearing before D. Murphy in the municipal Tuesday. The scene of the was a Japanese boarding shooting was a Japanese boarding house on Twenty-fourth street, direct-ly across the street from the Armory On the morning after Thanksgiving day, Kawahata, accompanied by the proprietor of the house, called at the police station about 9:30 o'clock, where a story of the crime was learned by the officers, Kawahata maintaining that he shot Okano in self-defense and only after the other man had attempted to shoot him. He told graphically of having wrested the gun away from Okano, who was a much larger man than himself, and then shooting his assailant. Upon further investigation the police discovered suf-ficient circumstantial evidence to warrant County Atty. David Jenson ir issuing a complaint charging murder in the first degree, notwithstanding the fact that the coroner's jury failed to place the responsibility so far as crim-inal intent was concerned. The white wife of the dead man was present at the first investigation and told of two diamond rings and a diamond stud, all of the value of $500, which her husband always wore. These were missing when his dead body was removed by the undertaker and thus far absolutely no trace has been found of them. Mrs. Okano also maintains that her husband had several hundred dollars in cash on his person when he left Salt Lake to attend the wrestling match at Ogden on Thanksglving day: On cross-examination, one of the state' witnesses, a friend of Okano and busi ness associate, testified that the dead man did not carry more than $75 to $100 when he left Salt Lake, and that he had not noticed any diamonds or

DETAILED ACCOUNT.

Very little new evidence was intro-duced at the Tuesday afternoon hear-ing, except for a more detailed account of Kawahata's first story, which was related by Guard Thomas Lever, to whom the Jap delivered the gun with which he claimed he had killed Okano. One very peculiar fact is that the re volver contained two loaded cartridges while the empty shells, supposing there had been any, were missing. Thus far it has been impossible to find any trace of these shells and all efforts of the detectives and attorneys have falled to disclose any information on this sub-ject. According to the testimony of the sect. According to the testimony of the undertaker, the shooting must have accurred about two or three hours before Kawahata gave himself up to the police, the scene of the crime being but two blocks from the city jail. Neither Kawahata nor any of his countrymen are able to tell any details of the shooting and with the stoicism peculiar to the race, all efforts to gain any satisfactory information has utterly felled factory information has utterly relied. factory information has utterly falled. Whether there were any witnesses to the shooting remains a mystery, and what the shooting was about is even more of a puzzle. All that the defendant is able to tell is that following a quarrel about some unknown cause quarrel about some unknown cause. Okano drew a revolver, and attempted to kill him, firing two shots which went wide of their mark. In the strug-gle which followed Okano secured pos-session of the gun and fired the fatal snot. Some of the state's witnesses saw the dead man gambling as late as 4:30 a.m. and one of them surmised that Kawahata was also playing. Both men and their companions had been drinking their native beverage, "saki," of the state's witnesses drinking their native beverage, "sakl," which is known to have a very stimulating effect, to put it mildly. At the time of adjournment, a recess was taken till Wednesday morning, Judge Murphy, accompanied by the attorneys and a number of Japanese, interested in the shooting, visited the scene of the fight and examined two holes in one of the walls of an adjoining room claimed by the defense to have been claimed by the defense to have been made by bullets fired at Kawahata by

NUMEROUS BURGLARIES PUZZLE THE POLICE

Ggden, Dec. 14.—That an organized gang of house-breakers is operating in 5ait Lake and Ogden, is the belief of Chief of Detectives James F. Pender, who refers to the numerous thefts which have been committed in both cities during the past few days. In order to cope with the situation, two plain clothes men from the Ogden force are now working in Salt Lake department have been detailed to visit Ogden, it being the belief of both departments that the crooks and criminal element from both cities have been exchanging scenes of operation. The recent movement in Salt Lake in driving out the undesirable element has brought many rough characters to Ogden and it is thought that the migration has worked both ways.

The police have thus far been unable to find any trace of the burglars who entered the home of A. J. Rollow at 2237 Adams avenue, on Monday evening, when fewelry, cash and wearing apparel valued at about $150 was stolen. This was an unusually bold affair, occurring at 7:20 in the evening, while the family were in front of the house. The thieves, hearing footsteps, boldly flashed a light in Mrs. Rollow's face, pointing a revolver at her, and then made their escape by jumping through a window glass. The crash aroused the neighbors and Mr. Rollow, who was in the yard, a short distance from the house, started in pursuit and later picked up a loaded revolver which had been dropped when one of the fleeing thieves

Years of Suffering

Catarrh and Blood Disease Doctors Failed to Cure.

Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."

Hood's Sarsaparilla effects its wonderful cures, not simply because it contains sarsaparilla, but because it combines the utmost remedial value of more than 20 different ingredients, greatly strengthened and enriched. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolated tablets called Sarsatabs.

fell over a wire fence. This is the third time. Mrs. Rollow has come face to face with armed robbers and her condition, due to a nervous breakdown, is critical, she being under the care of a physician. She states that during the brief interval the flash light was turned toward her, she recognized the second man just back of the fellow holding the light, as a tramp whom she had taken into her kitchen and fed on Sunday.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease.

He states that fucy have the disease.

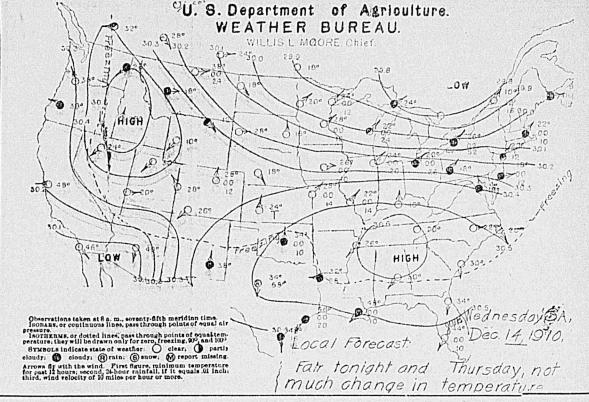

He states that judging from his own experience, and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing these diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.
